Prophetic Encounters Testimonies

Supernatural Turnaround after Joining this Commission!

'After we got married, we trusted God for the fruit of the womb. Also, we were battered and beaten. However, after asking God to show us the way out, the Holy Ghost directed us to Canaanland. In 2012, we joined this Commission; thereafter, we began to see breakthroughs as God began to touch our lives. During one of the services, Bishop David Oyedepo said, "Sperm does not make children, God is the one that created them." These words hit us like never before. The Bishop further asked us how many children we wanted and we said two. In August 2013, my wife was confirmed pregnant and during the scan, two babies were revealed. In May 2014, she delivered a set of twins —two bouncing baby girls. Meanwhile, we asked God to give us our own house and in May 2017, we moved into our house. We return all the glory to the God of this Commission!'

Supernatural Breakthrough after Joining this Commission!

'I am Muslim convert; thirteen years ago, I came to this Church as a bus conductor and I gave my life to Christ. Also, God delivered me from marijuana, alcohol and cultism. In 2007, my wife told me she was advised not to have an elaborate wedding because we would be barren for twelve years if we do and immediately, I rejected it. A month after our wedding, she began to cry because there was pressure from her parent to get pregnant. However, at Shiloh 2007, she became pregnant. After Shiloh 2009, she was confirmed pregnant with our second child and in 2013, she was pregnant with our third child. Today, God has changed my story; I, a former bus conductor, now a landlord. I now have my own company and have travelled abroad, including the United States of America and London. I give God all the glory!'
